

A-Z

of festive fundraising ideas

Celebrate a Life

Name a star on one of our trees in Chelsea or Sutton for someone special.

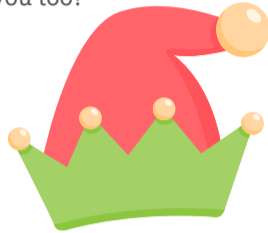

Donate an hour of your pay or pocket money

Every little helps!

Elf fun run

Get sponsored to run dressed as an elf and why not rope in your friends and family to run with you too?

Festive Fair

Organise a fair in your local village hall with classic stalls selling typical foods and gifts for the festive season.

Giving Tuesday

Join millions of people taking part in #GivingTuesday, an inspiring day to donate and raise awareness for us.

Hanukkah gifts

Ask for donations to us rather than swapping gifts this Hanukkah.

Illuminate your home or street

Why not bring some joy to your street by dressing the outside of your house in lights and rope in the neighbours to do the same too. Ask for donations from passersby.

Jazzy jumper day

Make a donation to us and don your craziest jumper to this year's Christmas party, with a prize for the worst!

Karaoke Christmas carols

Sing your heart out with friends and colleagues. Charge an entry fee for each song, or why not turn it into a competition with a prize for the best performance?

Line of lights

String up some fairy lights in the office and add some clothes pegs to the line. Ask colleagues to hang a note or bag of coins onto it. When it's full, collect the donations and turn on the lights!

Movie night with friends

Stay in on these cold winter nights and have a Christmas movie marathon with friends. Donate what you would have spent on a night out.

New year's resolution to give something up

Get sponsored to give up alcohol, chocolate or technology for a month or more.

Online office party

Why not host an online office party this year and donate what you would have paid on an in-person event.

Pantomime

Ask your local theatre if you can hold a bucket collection at the end of the show, rope in some friends to help collect and we can supply the buckets!

Quiz for Christmas

With our handy quiz pack, all you need are some teams and a quizmaster!

Rudolph

A great addition to any party – pin the tail on Rudolph! Blindfold participants, charge them a fee to enter and give a prize to the winner.

Secret Santa

Instead of giving silly gifts this year, why not donate the money you would usually spend on a secret Santa.

Tree recycling service

Offer to take your neighbours' trees to a local recycling centre in return for a donation to us.

Unwanted presents swap

Did you get another set of socks or an ugly jumper – why not host a get together after Christmas and swap unwanted gifts, put in a donation to take something new.

Visit our online shop

Explore our wide range of gifts so we can continue to support those affected by cancer.

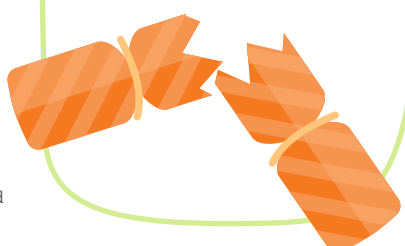

Wrap gifts

Set up a station at work or school and offer to wrap gifts in return for a donation. Ask people to provide the paper and all you'll need is scissors, Sellotape and some xmas tunes!

Xmas crackers

Make and sell your own crackers this festive season – a lovely homemade addition to any dinner table.

Yoga-day

Set up a relaxing day of yoga sessions and ask people to donate for each class.

Zero screen time

Challenge yourself to zero screen time for a day/week over the holidays.

The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity event

